Narbonne Play Nets $149

The lights have faded and the curtain has been lowered on another senior play at Narbonne high school. And as people slowly forget Friday, May 27, the question is—how much did the play make?

After a close check-up, it was learned that "Adam and Eva" had made a clear profit of $149.55. Miss Lolo Kern, director, stated that she was well pleased with the performances of the cast and thought the performance a profitable one.

QUESTIONS: Pontiac is the name of a popular make of cars. It is also the name of what important man who lived in the eighteenth century?

Who or what goes on forever, according to that poem? Who wrote it?

Just what kind of a spice is anise? And what, oh what, is a vibrissa? Think hard, now!

TODAY'S PROVERB "Who has tasted a sour apple may have the more relish for a sweet one."—German.

ANSWERS: Pontiac was an American Indian. He was chief of the Ottawa.

It is a brook that boasts of going on forever. The lines appear in a poem by Tennyson, entitled "The Brook."

Were you a little in doubt about mace? No wonder! Mace is the dried outer covering of nutmeg. You were pretty far off your guess about vibrissa, we'll wager, for a vibrissa is nothing more or less than the correct name for a cat's whisker!

Local Relief Aid Computed for New Budget

Los Angeles county supervisors have taken into consideration the amount this city and the other 43 cities of the county received in unemployment relief funds in working out the county road and highway budget allotments for the coming fiscal year...

According to the supervisors' figures the city of Torrance had 43 percent of the total number of relief cases that were aided with the approximately $13,000,000 of unemployment relief funds provided by a special bond issue in 1935.

In money, this amounted to $55,331, according to the tabulation Los Angeles city, with 60.16 percent of the relief load, alone accounted for $7,741,160 of the total.
